KILLED AT VANCEBURG

Joseph Redden, 18 Years Old, Found Dead Alongside C. & O.
Tracks.

Early Sunday morning at Vanceburg, the body of Joseph Redden, Jr., aged 18, was found lying beside the C. & O. tracks.

Both legs were cut off and his left arm crushed. His body was found by C. & O. Operator Betram near the tower.

It is supposed that Redden was either run down or attempted to board a train. He formerly worked in Portsmouth.

ANOTHER MAYSVILLE BOY

Son of Mr. James W. Piper, of This City, Some Marksman in Uncle Sam's Army.

In the Florida Times-Union, of Jacksonville, Fla., date of October 15, we note in the President's rifle match, there were forty-two teams competing and 520 entries. Among these was Corporal E. B. Piper, U. S. M. C., son of Mr. James W. Piper, of East Second street, this city.

Out of the 520, Corporal Piper finished seventh, scoring 97 at R. F.; 73 at 600 yards, and 75 at 1,000 yards, a total of 245.

Mr. Piper received a prize of $18.

No matter what Maysville is called upon to do, she ranks right up among the top-notchers.

Here's to Corporal Piper, hoping at the next President's match he may be No. 1.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT.

Jackson, a colored youth, $5.15 on the charge of breach of peace.

Squire Fred W. Bauer handed Bernard Rogers $5.95 on the charge of breach of peace. Rogers "got back" at His Honor and was placed in the lockup for five hours for contempt of court.

William Mitchell was given $5.95 on the charge of being drunk.

PAINTING DEVINE BUILDING.

Painters and decorators are busy this week painting the Devine building, on Market street. From the progress made the looks of the building will be improved very much when finished.

A GREAT REDUCTION

In going over our stock we find that we are OVERLOADED, and have decided to REDUCE STOCK, and it goes at cost.
This space will not permit us to list it all. One great bargain is 100,000 feet of an EXCELLENT GRADE OF OAK SIDING. This goes at $2 PER HUNDRED. All other yard stock greatly reduced.

Don't miss this opportunity to get what you want in lumber and building material at the lowest prices ever known in Maysville. Terms at this reduced price are CASH.

How To Avoid The Motor Car That Bags At the Knees

The automobile is curiously like the human body—an assembling of independent parts.

The man-machine is made up of muscle and bone, nerve and blood, water and fat, waste matter and brains.

As far as locomotion is concerned, neither machine is any stronger than its weakest "link."

Mark the badly co-ordinated man. He looks O. K., but when there are stairs to climb or pace to be forced, he puffs and pants, and one concludes that his ruddy color came from a recent facial massage; that his bellows need mending, that his muscles aren't; that his "strength" is mere scenery and that his sound appearance is mostly tailor made.

Haven't you seen automobiles just like that, look "pre-ty" but won't take you from Here to There and Back?

The "Wonder Car" that the Square Deal Man sells won't "bag at the knees," and he can prove by the testimony of delightful owners that it will take you There and Back, not once, but many times, and that it is the lowest "After Cost" car on the market today. If you are a prospective car owner, phone us and we will be glad to take you for a trial spin in the Maxwell "25."

LITERARY PROGRAMS FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

The first literary program of the year to be given by the societies of the Maysville High School will be rendered Friday afternoon, when the Athenaeum and the Adelpheas will, as is the custom, hold a joint meeting.
Speeches, essays, reading and debates are on the program, and with the preparation they have received, will be rendered in a most pleasing manner.
The present year bids to be the most successful of any since the organization of the societies seven years ago.
This year each society has a membership of more than a hundred, and with the possibility of several more being added. At different times during the year programs will be rendered, the announcement of which will be seen in The Ledger.

BODY FOUND IN RIVER BELOW HERE.

boating in the Ohio river, near Stop 26, on the New Richmond traction line, Tuesday, came upon a body floating in the river. They towed it ashore, but it was in such an advanced state of decomposition that it could not be determined whether it was the body of a man or a woman.

nominée for Commissioner of Agriculture, Labor and Statistics, arrived in lican victory is sure and that the Republicans will sweep the State.

LOT SALE SUCCESSFUL

Forest Avenue-Second Street Addition. Opened Tuesday—Many Prominent People Purchase—To Be Residence District of the City in the Near Future.

After a short delay, due to the weather, the lot sale of the new addition to Maysville, known as the Forest Avenue and Second Street Addition, was opened to the public Tuesday morning shortly after 10 o'clock.

The sale was conducted by the West Bros. Realty Company, of Louisville, for the local promoters, Thomas L.
Ewan & Company. After a short opening address, Col. W. H. Davis, the witty auctioneer of the company, E.
N. Beckett, swung the sale into action by asking for bids on Lot No. 5, situated on the south side of Second street.

After a bit of lively bidding, in which the witticisms of the auctioneer urged the purchasers to higher bids, the lot was knocked down to Mr.
G. W. Manning for $100. The auctioneer moved his carriage from lot to lot and before noon he had disposed of fifteen lots, ranging in price from $387 down to $200.

The sale was discontinued during the dinner hour but as the weather conditions were much better in the afternoon, the sale of the afternoon was much better and the majority of the lots were disposed of.

All during the day prizes were distributed to those lucky enough to hold the number that called for the premiums. The Maysville Brass Band rendered splendid music during the sale.

SOCCER FOOTBALL GAME THIS AFTERNOON.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock, the third game of the championship series for the soccer football honors of the Maysville High School will be played at League Park between the picked teams of the Adelpheas and Athenaeum Literary Societies. This game promises to be a hot one, as the Adelpheas can tie the Athenaeum in the standing of the series by winning this game. If the Athenaeum win they will have a two-game lead over the Adelpheas and the championship almost clinched.

The tie game of Friday will cause many spectators to be at the game, for when two teams have battled as these teams did for over an hour and the game result in a tie, the next game is sure to be a good one. The members of both teams say this will be the game of the series and no doubt it will.

DO IT RIGHT.

Workmen are busy this week repairing the havoc done by a broken water pipe which undermined the brick streets on West Second street near Wall. A new street is being laid which in some places looks good, while in others, especially along the edge, does not look so good. If the work is going to be done, have it done right.

THE MAN WHO NEVER VOTES.

The man who criticizes the government of city, nation and then stays home on election day is a partner of the corrupt politician who makes the laws. Baltimore American.
It is true, and can not be denied. How often we hear some man say, "Politics are so rotten that I never go to the polls."
The expression is frequently made, and yet the man who stays away from the polls on election day is nothing more than a figure-head. He has no interest at heart but his own interest.
If he is a true, patriotic citizen, he would go to the polls every election day and vote his convictions as they might be. If "politics are rotten" he would be there to purify them.
When he stands on the street corner or in the grocery store and condemns the government, he has not done that which he thinks is right. He did not cast a vote either way in the election or less than a "knocker" of the type and should not be called a citizen. There is no place in this great country of ours for a man who belongs to Russia, where men are denied the right of citizenship and serve the Czar as slaves.
A man at home who has no place in the government of his country and should be prevented from voting.
Patriotism and come out on election day, vote for the man who is honest and honest to yourself and if you want a good government, a pure government, and a government, vote the "Log Cabin".
The Republican party stands for all these things.
That Beckham, Van Sant, Haley, etc., Stanley, etc., Democratic State ticket? That Beckham falling all over himself supporting (1) Stanley, do you?

A CHANGEFUL VOTER.

It is announced that President Wilson can cast his ballot in New Jersey for the equal suffrage movement. But there is plenty of time for him to change his mind. In the campaign of 1912 he announced himself in favor of free tolls for coastwise traffic through the canal but in 1913 he secured repeal of the free tolls provision. In 1912 he advocated economy, but in 1913 and 1914 he approved the most extravagant legislation in American history. In 1912 he pledged himself to "preserve the sacred rights of American citizens at home and abroad," but in August, 1913, he urged Americans to "leave Mexico immediately," not withstanding they were there by rights protected by treaties as sacred as it is possible for nations to make. In 1912 Mr. Wilson loudly proclaimed his support of the spirit of the civil service law, but in 1913 he disregarded that law in the face of protests from organized friends of the merit system in government service. It will be wise for the equal suffragists not to count Mr. Wilson's vote until after it is cast.

Why is it that the Democratic press is making such a fuss over the recent registration? They are claiming fraud and everything else, in many of the larger cities, while the Republicans are "sawing wood," and will pile up the votes on election day.

Secretary Josephus urges the building of forty-eight battleships at an average cost of $18,000,000 each. Eighteen million dollars multiplied by forty-eight equals $864,000,000. Billion dollar Congress, eh? And then some!—Commercial Tribune.

There is some splendid communitarian material among the bunch of candidates who have announced for Council this year. Citizens, get together, sift the chaff, and elect men who will put Maysville to the front as never before.

It's no use. The Democratic press is trying to throw cold water on Morrow's candidacy for Governor. He is the logical candidate, and the crowds he is having all over the State indicate his election.

Let us have a Council that will give the people their rights. Mr. Voter, don't forget you ought to elect your own city officers. Vote for the Councilmen who are in favor of your ideas.

Prospects for a good fall business are bright. Merchants are elated over the outlook, and are predicting a business more than normal.

Let the people elect their own city officers. This is their inherent right and should never have been usurped by any body of Councilmen.

In Boston they have it that the Colonel is going to vote the Republican ticket next. Stranger things have happened.

Who's going to be elected Councilman from your Ward, is the all-inspiring question today in Maysville.

Conductor—"Come out of it, mister. You got a change here—this car goes to the barn."
Rube (seeing New York, half asleep)—"Go right ahead, sonny! I ain't fed a hog or milked a cow in over a week, I guess. I'll help you do the chores this evening."—Puck.

"Bill has been slaving away at that desk for more than twenty years. I wonder why he has never been promoted?"

"Why, he's always taken a pride in doing more than he's been paid for, and his employers have been afraid they couldn't fill his place."—Puck.

DEMOCRATS RIDDLED BY MORROW

Republican Nominee Makes Good Impression At Lebanon Opera House.

COURTROOM TOO SMALL TO ACCOMMODATE AUDIENCE.

Lebanon, Ky., October 18.—Before an enthusiastic audience that taxed the capacity of the spacious opera house here, the home city of former Governor Proctor Knott, this evening Edwin P. Morrow, Republican nominee for Governor, vigorously flayed A. O. Stanley, the Democratic candidate, for the latter's criticism of former Governor Wilson during that official's term of office in spending $25 out of public funds for the purchase of a wreath which was placed on the grave of Knott as the tribute of the people of Kentucky to the memory of a great Kentuckian.

In a useless and a ridiculous attempt to uphold the hands and to defend the record of Barksdale Hamlett, Superintendent of Public Instruction, and the Democratic nominee for Secretary of State, Mr. Morrow.

Stanley, seeks to call former Governor Wilson to task for the alleged waste of money by sending $25 worth of flowers to be placed on the grave of Knott," said Morrow, "in this, the home of that distinguished statesman who was the successful candidate for the gubernatorial chair against my father many years ago. As a Republican and as a Kentuckian, I endorse with all my heart this act of Governor Wilson in sending a tribute to the grave of Proctor Knott as a token of Kentucky's esteem for the memory of an illustrious son. The spectacle of Stanley's objection to the sending of this wreath is absurd and ridiculous and is so base that even Mr. Stanley himself has not repeated the objection."

Mr. Morrow was loudly cheered for his remarks in answer to this attack.

Opera House Filled.
The meeting was one of the most enthusiastic political rallies ever held in Marion county. The speaking was to have been held in the courthouse, but owing to the size of the crowd that gathered in Lebanon early in the day members of the Republican Campaign Committee in charge of the rally, decided to have Mr. Morrow speak in the opera house. The building was filled to overflowing and many men and women who were unable to attend the speaking called at the nominee's headquarters at the Hotel Vaughn after the meeting to see him.

REPUBLICANS CONFIDENT

Roy Wilhoit and Judge Gilliam Speak At Jamestown.

Jamestown, Ky., October 18.—Judge John H. Gilliam and Roy Wilhoit spoke to a large crowd here this afternoon in the interest of the Republican ticket. Their addresses were well received and local Republican look forward with confidence to the outcome of the election.

Judge Gilliam and Mr. Wilhoit engaged in a speaking campaign in the smaller towns which Mr. Morrow will not be able to visit. They report that they are being heard by good audiences at all points.

They announced the following dates for this week: Tomorrow, Burkesville; Wednesday, Tompkinsville and Sumner Shade; Thursday, Edmington and Gradyville; Friday, Columbia; Saturday, Liberty.

Burrowers—Beware!

Gophers and prairie dogs are the bane of western farmers, while in the east woodchucks are the type of burrowing animals that cause the tillers of the soil to forget some of the things the dominie tells them on Sundays.

Don Leonardo Ruiz, a California rancher, says "dynamite is the proper medicine to give ground squirrels, gophers, prairie dogs, etc."

Take an inch and a half or two inches of dynamite. Put it in a bit of cloth or several thicknesses of paper to form a small round cartridge. Tie the cloth or paper firmly about one end of a piece of fuse twelve or fourteen inches long, but do not use a cap.

Insert one of these charges well into the mouth of every hole and pack loose dirt around the fuse, leaving enough of the end outside to light easily. Light the fuse and go on to the next hole. There will be no explosion. There being no cap or other detonator, the dynamite will simply burn. Filling the hole with dense, poisonous fumes that will almost instantly stifle and then kill every living thing inside.

People who go the pace usually arrive home at night.

ACCUSES STANLEY OF SIDESTEPPING

E. P. Morrow, In Speech At Leitchfield, Scores Alleged Evasive Tactics of His Opponent.

DEMOCRATS ARE NOT DISCUSS ISSUES, HE SAYS.

Hardinsburg, Ky., October 18.—Edwin P. Morrow, Republican nominee for Governor, in address in the courtroom here Saturday afternoon, denounced the alleged evasive tactics of A. O. Stanley and of other members of the Democratic State ticket in meeting the issues of the present campaign.

Mr. Morrow declared that the Democrats have failed satisfactorily to answer any of the charges made against them and that they spend most of their time in sidestepping the real issues of the day in desperate attempts to spar away the time until election day.

"For some reason best known to my distinguished opponent, Mr. Stanley and his fellow nominees on the Democratic ticket are making more or less skillful efforts to evade questions and issues of vital interest to Kentucky in the present campaign," said Mr. Morrow. "At his opening speech at Glasgow last night, Mr. Stanley spoke at length of the cotton fields of Louisiana and of the South in the days following the war."

Won't Discuss Issues.

"Later he went back to ancient Rome, thousands of years ago and now he is talking about the invisible government. Mr. Stanley is afraid to talk about Kentucky. He is afraid to tell the real truth about the condition of the government of the Commonwealth after nearly four years of Democratic rule. Stanley is no fool and he knows as well as every intelligent citizen of the Commonwealth, Democrat and otherwise, that the present administration has broken practically every promise it made with the people of Kentucky in 1911, when it was entrusted with the welfare of the State."

"Reckless extravagance in nearly every department of the State government has followed the party's solemn promise to exercise the utmost economy in the expenditure of the public funds. Unjust taxation under Democratic laws has continued to prevail in spite of the Democratic stand in 1911 for a revision of our entire system of providing funds for the maintenance of the government."

Lobbyists Hold Sway.

"An anti-lobby law was promised, but now was passed, and Kentucky bears the shame among the States of the Union of permitting and considering it lawful for unrestricted graft and greed in the form of lobbyists to have full sway under the very dome of the capitol at Frankfort. Every lobbyist is a living testimonial of the fact and charge that the Democratic party broke its faith with the people of Kentucky."

Mr. Morrow said that the existence of these lobbyists is not denied even by Democracy, and he points to the fact that Mr. Stanley has admitted their existence in a number of addresses in the course of the campaign.

"Along came Owsley Stanley admitting the horrible conditions that have existed at the recent sessions of the Legislature," said Mr. Morrow. "He sneers at his sword and like a modern Jack the Giant Killer he exclaims, 'Show me the lobby and I will kill it!' He does that only up in the mountains, however. Down in Louisville and in other parts of the State he changes his tune completely and makes a plea for the re-election of the present Representatives who were members in full standing of the notorious 'shack that graft built'."

Awake! Issue Challenge.

Mr. Morrow also referred to the bankrupt conditions of the State Treasury today, and he repeated an unaccepted challenge which he issued to Mr. Stanley two weeks ago in which he offered to pay one-half of the expenses of an auditor to go over the State books at Frankfort to prove the truth or the falsity of Mr. Morrow's charges that the finances of the Commonwealth are in a frightful condition.

WHAT MAKES A CITY?

The Philadelphia Evening Ledger has a short editorial on "What Makes a City Great?" and this is the way it answers the question:

The greatness of this city, blessed with a location unsurpassed among inland cities of the world, can never surpass the greatness of the living men who are in charge of its development.

Why handicap it by putting little men in power who could not do great things even if they desired?

It is the men who make a city. A grand city can not be expected from men of low ideals. A stream rises no higher than its source. If you are to have a good city you have to have good, clean, upright, courageous men devoted to its development. We don't gather figs from thistles, neither in nation nor in society nor government. "I am for men," said Henry George, and that should be the platform of every true citizen. Men are wanted who will not waste themselves in pleasure, but who will devote themselves to the happiness of the people. Let neither party, sect, society nor church interfere with the practical application of this idea.—Ashland Independent.

The merchant who forgets to advertise should not complain when the buyer forgets that he is in business. 'Tis just a case of "forget" all around.

Opening the Farm For Bigger Crops

Third Dimension of the Farm an Important Factor to Greater Crops and Bigger Dividends.

WISE farmers are beginning to realize that a farm goes farther than length and breadth. Depth is a vital factor, and incidentally this third dimension has a clearly identified influence upon the producing value of the earth's surface.

Thus "vertical farming," a newer method of agriculture, is rapidly developing. Merely to scrape the hrisles from a hog's hide is not enough. Deeper cutting is essential in order to reach the bacon. And experience has shown that to simply plow or turn the soil is very often only the scratch-work of a farmer when it comes to crops.

And the productivity of a farm is increased by the tight clay or hard pan lying on the top soil. Costly implements for tilling this upper soil and taking care of increased horizontal or surface acreage are all right in their way, but to go deeper into the farm, to increase its fertility and productivity by increasing its depth, is a matter that the practice of vertical farming accomplishes quickly and economically, and very often a single cartridge of explosive will convert several yards of otherwise useless subsoil into half an acre of new root feeding surface. Thus, instead of spreading out and embracing more territory, vertical farming enables the farmer to really concentrate and by intensive methods conserves in both labor and expense. At the same time the resulting increase in crops emphasizes the profitable features of the process.

And there is a practical reason for this. By breaking up the subsoil oxygen is admitted into the ground, and the pent up natural fertilizing elements of the lower soils are released and utilized. A reservoir for the storage of water is created, and a good home for the roots is produced. Good roots are essential to good plants. Men who look below the surface realize these facts. They know also that a plant produces only in proportion to the extent of air, water and nourishment given its roots. Thus is the new method of vertical farming both logical and profitable.

This method of farming vertically is in itself easy, simple and labor saving. A half cartridge charge of farm powder placed well down into the tight subsoil

WILLSON AT GLASGOW

Compares His Record in Office With That of McCreary.

Glasgow, Ky., October 18.—Augustus E. Willson, former Governor, spoke here today in the interest of the Republican State ticket and despite inclement weather a good-sized audience greeted him.

A greater part of his speech was devoted to defending his administration from attacks made by Mr. Stanley and comparison of his administration with that of the present Democratic administration.

Mr. Willson discussed the tobacco situation in Kentucky and told his hearers that he called the first conference that resulted in better understanding between the growers and buyers and decidedly better prices for the growers. He paid considerable attention to Mr. Stanley and at the close paid a splendid tribute to Mr. Morrow and the State ticket and assured the voters that they would not make a mistake by electing the Republican ticket in November. Many Democrats heard the speech and some complimented it.

F. T. Franks Speaks to 400 Voters At Mt. Sterling.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., October 18.—Ed. T. Franks, of Owensboro, spoke here today to 400 voters. He was introduced by Judge Robert H. Winn and spoke for two hours.

Mr. Franks delivered a severe arraignment of the State and national administrations and showed up Stanley's hypocrisy on the liquor question and his changed ideas regarding affairs at Frankfort since the recent primary. Barkdale Hamlett and Creel also came in for strong censure. There were many Democrats at the meeting and many of them announced for Morrow. Much enthusiasm was shown.

He "popped"—but not in vain!

What Is Your Blood Pressure?

The age of the 40s is a critical period in every person's life. And one of the most common things that makes it critical is increased "blood pressure" with its accompanying "hardening of the arteries."

Scientists have fully proven that increased blood pressure is caused by poisonous deposits in the delicate tissues of the arteries. One of the chief agents in this process is coffee, with its poisonous drug, caffeine.

"A man is as old as his arteries," life insurance companies say, and the Blood Pressure Test is one of the principal factors nowadays in determining a "risk." How do you stand?

If there is any doubt about coffee's hurting—if you have frequent headaches, biliousness, sleeplessness, nervousness, or heart flutter—try a 10 days' change to

"SAFETY FIRST"

Prizes Offered For Best Slogan—Purpose To Protect Human Life

The slogan "Safety First," embodied in a pictorial poster, is worth to the designer the snug sum of $300. In due time this poster will mark the streets and highways of the entire country, according to the plans of the Safety First Society of Greater Detroit.

A contest for such a poster will be launched by the society at the convention of the Safety First Federation of America in Detroit, October 19 and 20, and will close about January 1, all designs to be submitted to the society at the Detroit Board of Commerce.

The competition will be open to all artists in the United States and for the design, which in the opinion of the judges will bring most forcibly to the minds of the people "safety first" on the streets and highways of the country, $300 will be paid. The second best will be awarded $100, the third $50, the fourth $30, and the fifth $20.

The five judges will be appointed by Darwin P. Kingsley, of New York City, president of the Safety First Federation of America, who will meet immediately after the close of the contest and make the awards.

This will be but one of the features of the national convention in Detroit. Reports will be presented at that time from committees on street traffic, transportation, fire prevention, health and sanitation, "safety first" for children, and a standard code of traffic regulations will be recommended for adoption by cities throughout the country, and there will be discussions by national authorities of many other phases of the subject of public safety. Every city in the United States is asked to appoint three delegates to the convention.

The poster design must relate to safety on the streets and highways, and contain the words "Safety First," and be adaptable to nation-wide use. The design must be on flexible cardboard or paper, 8 1/2 by 11 inches, and of such character as to lend themselves to lithographic or color process printing and zinc reproduction. The general rules covering the competition can be obtained from the Safety First Society of Greater Detroit.

Alonso P. Ewing, president of the society, believes that this contest will aid in arousing such interest as to prompt the formation of many safety first organizations throughout the country and decrease the number of street accidents by one-half.

"At no time in the history of the world has the recognized value of human life been so high as at present," said President Ewing, "notwithstanding the terrible havoc that is being wrought by the European war. Evidence has not been wanting during

Children at an Open Air School

LOUISVILLE has a school for those anaemic, rundown children who are ordinarily subject to every form of disease. Such children are greatly retarded in school, not only through their poor physical condition, but also through frequent loss of time on account of sickness. Among these children also the germs of tuberculosis may later find good soil.

This picture shows the warm sunlit and caps provided for the children, who are kept all day long in the open air. Windows on both sides of the school-room are kept continually open.

At noon the children are given a substantial meal at the school and then rest on cots for about an hour. Experience in Louisville and throughout the country shows that this combination of fresh air, nourishing food and rest under the supervision of a physician and a visiting nurse will produce remarkable results. The children uniformly show increased weight, better color, better spirits and greater activity. The school work is made subordinate to the care of the children's health, yet with fewer hours of instruction each day they make progress equal to that of normal children in the typical schoolroom. If fresh air is good for sick children it must also be good for healthy children. The day is coming, according to Dr. Landis of Cincinnati, when every schoolroom will be an open air room.

You visit the pen you keep your pigs in, but do you visit the school to which you send your children? Do you really know whether it is clean and well ventilated? Does it have good water and clean closets? If your school is not clean and well ventilated, protest to the teachers and trustees till the faults are remedied.

the last twenty years to show the desire on the part of all to safeguard life, limb and property. During that time the greatest effort along this line has been made in manufacturing and industrial activities and the results have been wonderful.

With the advent of the automobile and other fast moving traffic on our street and highways, there has been an increasing demand for public safety appliances and education throughout the country. Foremost among the larger cities which have taken up the subject is Detroit, where the citizens and public officials have actively cooperated with the Safety First Society of Greater Detroit.

Through the efforts of this organization, a code of traffic rules has been adopted in Detroit which are attracting nationwide attention. Many of these rules have been accepted as a standard by other large cities throughout the country.

UP TO US NOW.

There is a steady, persistent and growing movement sweeping over this country for the improvement of roads. You can hardly pick up a paper from any section of the country but what you will find the question agitated in its columns.

It is a good sign and speaks well for the future of the country as a whole.

But what of this community?

What are we going to do toward improving our own roads?

No one else is going to answer this question for us. It is clearly up to our own people.

If we want good roads we must make them ourselves. Other people in other communities will not do it for us.

We suggest the formation of a local organization that will take up this question this winter and thrash it out to a logical conclusion, and then let the local produce results.

There are plenty of brains in this community to settle this question in a manner highly satisfactory to every one.

Let's start them working.

Bill Sunday says every man is either on the road to heaven or on the road to hell. If B. S. speaks from experience he must have traveled the both.

NATIONAL CHILD LABOR LAW

Connecticut Manufacturer Favors a Sixteen-Year Limit—Children Not Good Workers.

"We need a national law that will keep children in school until they are 16," Mr. D. H. Warner, one of the largest manufacturers in Connecticut, told a representative of the National Child Labor Committee the other day. Mr. Warner is the head of a large concern in Bridgeport, who recently put his 4,000 employees on a forty-eight hour week, although the state law permits him to operate fifty-five hours a week.

"The manufacturer who employs children of 14 or 15 does not benefit himself because children are not good workers; he does not benefit the community because he harms the child, and it is the good of the community, not the individual manufacturer, that must be considered in this question of child labor."

"I never employ children under 16 if I can get older workers because I consider the years between 14 and 16 the most impressionable ones of a child's life and I know that the factory influence is a bad one, no matter how careful an employer may be. Those years should be spent in school and in the open, not in the factory where physical, mental, moral and financial growth is stunted. If we must have men with a college education in the executive positions, it is equally necessary to have a proportionate amount of training throughout the entire force. I find it extremely difficult to get intelligent girls for responsible positions. I have tried to train them, but their lack of education makes it impossible for them to go beyond a certain point."

"It is true, of course, that poverty makes it necessary for some children to go to work before they are 16. I think it might be advisable to permit exemptions to the sixteen-year limit for such children who are over 14 and are declared physically fit for work by a physician. Cases of actual poverty are not very numerous, however. Many children are sent to work because their parents are not poor but are careless."

Give us millions for but one penny for our children.

TO CAN FRUIT IN OVEN

By This Method Fruit Retains Its Shape, Color and Flavor to Remarkable Extent.

Cooking canned fruit in the oven is easily and quickly done, while the fruit retains its shape, color and flavor better than when cooked in a preserving kettle.

Cover the bottom of the oven with a sheet of asbestos, the same as used by plumbers for covering furnace pipes. This is very reasonable at any plumbing shop. If it is impossible to purchase the asbestos, use a large pan in which there is about two inches of boiling water. Thoroughly sterilize the jars and utensils. Make the sirup of sugar and water as sweet as needed. Prepare the fruit the same as for cooking in the preserving kettle. Fill the hot jars with this, pouring in sufficient sirup to fill the jar. Run the blade of a silver knife around the inside of each jar. (Never use a steel knife.) Place the jars in the oven either on the asbestos or in the open pan of water.

The oven should be moderately hot. Cook the fruit ten minutes. Remove from the oven and fill each jar with boiling sirup. Wipe and seal. If the screw covers are used, tighten them after the glass has thoroughly cooled.

Large fruits may require a pint of sirup to each quart jar of fruit. The small fruit will require a little over half a pint of the sirup—Ladies' World.

SOME SIMPLE FOOD TESTS

How Potomine Poisoning Can Be Avoided by Testing Contents of Can for Copper.

Chicory is not harmful and some like it, but when we buy coffee we don't want to pay coffee price for chicory. To find out whether you are buying the real thing, put a tablespoonful of the coffee in a glass; pour cold water over it, and watch.

If the coffee is pure the water will hardly be stained. If chicory is present it turns the water a deep brown color.

Here is a good test for canned foods: Put a bright, clean steel knife in the contents directly you open the can. Leave for a minute. If copper is present it will be seen on the knife's blade and you've escaped potomine poisoning.

Fresh eggs will always sink in water. Stale eggs have smooth and glassy shells; fresh eggs have a lime-like surface.

Mince Chicken, Cream Sauce.

Put into a saucepan one tablespoonful of butter, one gill of stock and two tablespoonfuls of stale bread crumbs and stir until holling. Then add one piece of cold chicken, chopped fine, a teaspoonful salt, a dash of pepper and a teaspoonful of chopped parsley. Remove from the fire and add two well-beaten eggs; fill into small greased molds, stand in hot water and cook in the oven 15 minutes. Serve hot with a cream sauce made from rich milk, thickened to the consistency of cream. Very nice.

Kitchen Tables.

Two tables in the kitchen lessen work, one preferably zinc-covered to be used for rough work as preparing vegetables and meats and dish-up meals, the other for general convenience. Close to the first, which should be on castors but stand near sink and stove, should be meat-block, meat-saw, meat-knife, small cleaver, food-chopper or a hand and chopping knife, paring knife, vegetable cutters, skewers, hasting spoons and such other articles as are frequently used at this table.

Swiss Steak.

Lay thick round steak on a board, sprinkle with salt and pepper and pound in all the flour the meat will take. Treat the other side in the same manner. Put a little butter into the frying pan and when smoking hot brown the meat quickly on both sides. Fill the pan two-thirds full of hot water, cover closely and let cook one and a half or two hours. Onion may be added if desired. When done the gravy will be already thickened.

Frosted Peaches.

Select firm, good peaches. Rub carefully to remove fuzz. Beat the whites of six eggs, with a scant cupful of water. Dip the peaches in this, then roll in powdered sugar, lay on paper in sun to dry. Repeat until there is thick coating of the sugar around the peach. If entirely covered, these will keep for a long time, and this is a favorite English method of preparing peaches.

Rhubarb Pudding.

Two pounds of rhubarb, wash and cut in pieces. Don't peel. Then cover with water well and stew until very soft and all color is stewed out of the rhubarb. Then strain and put back on stove with one and one-half cupfuls of sugar added and thicken with two tablespoonfuls of cornstarch. Boil about ten minutes and then set in ice chest in a mold. Neco with cream and sugar.

Candied Peaches.

Weigh the peaches, and to each pound allow three-quarters of a pound of sugar. Cut each peach into about six pieces. Add just enough water to moisten the sugar and melt it over the fire. Boil each piece of peach in it until it is tender, but not until it breaks easily. Remove from the thick sirup again and then in sugar and repeat until the peach is thoroughly dried. Pack in covered glass jars.

Straightening Streams With Dynamite

The ancient Egyptians were noted for their crops because, as history states, they "sowed their seeds in the Nile." This does not mean that they actually cast the seed in the river. At certain seasons of the year the Nile overflows its banks, depositing on either shore a rich silt or earth that is highly conducive to bumper crops, and the wise ancient Egyptians, realizing this, profited thereby.

Water is a necessity. The tiniest brooks up to the largest rivers play an important part in the scheme of things inasmuch as they are nature's way of both irrigation and drainage. But being formed according to nature's dictates their courses do not always jibe with man's desires or needs.

Diagram of Stream Troubles That May Be Corrected by Blasting.

Rock ledges impede their progress. Overhanging stumps and trees retard their flow. Numerous irregularities cause them to meander about in apparently wasteful ways, and man's carelessness has added to these troubles by allowing driftwood and loose earth to form dams and sandbars.

All of these things help to hold the flood of waters back and cause either flooding or swamps, which not only occupy land that could be more profitably used for farming, but also form breeding places for mosquitoes and other obnoxious pests. Incidentally they cause an annual loss running into millions of dollars per year.

In this day of enlightenment such things are both wasteful and, one might add, criminal, especially so in view of the fact that almost instant relief may be had by a few well placed charges of dynamite. Not only will these blasts straighten out the kinks and bends and remove ledges and sand bars, but they will deepen and improve the channels as nature has really intended. Incidentally by straightening the winding course of a creek much area of tillable land can be obtained and farm operation in many instances made much easier.

NEW TOBACCO FOUND

Stalk Shown Has Eighty Leaves and Eight Feet in Height—Seed Being Saved For Test.

Winchester, Ky.—John Insko, living near this city on the David Gray farm, was exhibiting a stalk of tobacco last week, which is believed to be the largest grown in this section of Kentucky this season. The stalk was eight feet in height and had eighty leaves upon it. It was of the stand-up variety. While Mr. Insko stated he raised an exceptional crop this season, he points to the fact that there were two more stalks like the one he was exhibiting in the field and another nine feet in height. He stated that from all of these he is saving the seed, providing the frost does not get them before they mature. He is positive that he has found an improvement upon the standard variety of Burley tobacco. The quality of the stalk shown was in keeping with other specimens.
